The Baptism of the Lord

Reflections for this week's readings

First Reading: Isaiah 42: 1-4, 6-7

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 28: 1-4, 9-10

Second Reading: Acts 10: 34-38

Gospel: Matthew 3: 13-17

Last week we observed Epiphany Sunday, commemorating the visit of the wise men who journeyed from distant lands to worship Jesus Christ. This week, the Church celebrates the Baptism of our Lord. These two events, distinct yet deeply connected, were foretold centuries in advance. Seven hundred years before Christ, the prophet Isaiah envisioned the Messiah's mission— anointed by the Spirit to open blind eyes, liberate captives, and bring light into a darkened world. In His baptism, God the Father empowers His Son through the Holy Spirit to begin this salvific ministry.

The scriptural readings from both weeks remind us that Christ's mission is not confined to Israel alone. His call extends beyond cultural and ethnic boundaries— embracing both Jews and Gentiles in one redemptive purpose. St. Augustine teaches that Christ's baptism reveals His willing obedience to the Father. Though John the Baptist hesitated, Jesus chose to be baptised in the Jordan, fulfilling all righteousness. Likewise, when we or our children receive baptism, we echo that same obedience to God's command.

Through baptism, Jesus inaugurates a new covenant that supersedes the old law of circumcision. As He later commands in Matthew 28:19, His disciples are to baptise all nations in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. When Jesus arose from the waters, the heavens opened—signifying that baptism now opens heaven to humanity.

The baptism of Christ teaches us to practise what we ask of others: to lead by example in faith and humility. Today, many young people in Western churches respond to this call, seeking deeper commitment and discernment. Their willingness to come, as Jesus did, in humble obedience, brings joy to the Father.

The Baptism of the Lord

Feast of the Baptism of Our Lord Sunday January 11th, 2026

*What did Saint John the Baptist see that showed him that Jesus was the Son of God?
Connect the dots to find out!*

A sacrament is an outward sign of a grace that God gives us in our soul. When we are baptised, water is poured on our head as a symbol of the sin being washed out of our soul.

You might be wondering if babies need to get baptised when they haven't even done any sins yet. But baptism also takes away original sin, which comes to us from Adam and Eve. Baptism also gives us the grace we need to live a good Christian life. Of course babies can't sin when they are very young, but Baptism will give them grace when they need it.

Why do you think that Jesus got baptised, since He didn't have original sin or actual sins? Jesus didn't need to get rid of any sins, but He was baptised to give us an example.
